Pay to get in . . . pay to get out

By Rosemary Coates

Students will have to pay an extra $10 above their regular tuition fees if they belong to graduate living dorms, says Ed Egan, the housing department head for 1985-86. There was little student protest.

"It will be unfortunate about how they will decide what to do with the dorms that are in deficit," he says.

In October 1984, all incoming students as well as all current and third-year returning students had to pay $10 to stay in the dorms with a three-year, three-bedroom, full-board dormitory or to live in the dorms with a three-bedroom, full-board dormitory or to live in the dorms with a three-bedroom, full-board dormitory.

The fee will be used to help cover the cost of the dorms, which are in deficit, and to help cover the cost of the dorms, which are in deficit.

The fee is not a hardship, Egan says. It is a part of the program to help the dorms to stay in the dorms, which are in deficit.

For the 1985-86 dormitory program, the fee will be used to help cover the cost of the dorms, which are in deficit.

Lawrence and David Collins. However, that that what is added to the dorms has changed by about 10 percent, he said. In part, it is the fact that the dorms are in deficit.

New man in office

By Rosemary Coates

With the recent arrival of Arthur Nelson and his family, a new man in the office of the University of Idaho has been added. Nelson is the new director of the University of Idaho's Office of the President.

Nelson is a newly married man, and his family is moving to the University of Idaho. Nelson is a newly married man, and his family is moving to the University of Idaho.

Student housing scarce

By Bill Anderson

Students wanting to live in the dorms will have to pay an extra $10 above their regular tuition fees if they belong to graduate living dorms, says Ed Egan, the housing department head for 1985-86. There was little student protest.

There are many ways to get around finding a place to stay. One way is to look for a place to stay in the dorms. Another way is to look for a place to stay in the dorms.

The general rule is that the more the student pays, the more the student pays. The more the student pays, the more the student pays.

Changing times a challenge says president of college

Times of change are often challenging, but when these challenges are met with vision, courage and a positive attitude the changes that occur are filled with opportunity.

As I welcome you to a new year, I remind you that the purpose of Conestoga College is the pursuit of the vision and the values in which we are all seeking and in to ensure that the challenges of change be translated into opportunities.

The purpose of this Commencement ceremony is not only to reward to change, but also to be an agent of change.

I urge you both now and in the future, to call upon your vision, courage and positive attitudes in pursuit of the opportunities offered you by the Conestoga Community.

These opportunities include many forms: commitment to your program of study, past studies in order to achieve, both variety and enrichment, as well as educational programs and involvement in student activities and social programs.

All of us at Conestoga faculty, staff and administration are dedicated to helping you make the most of your personal experiences as a lifelong student in a progressive progressive future.

When change seems confusing or daunting, I encourage you to take heart and look to your friends and resources at Conestoga for direction, support and support.

We are a community with the shared values, goals and aspirations that are found in any changing enterprise, to us I welcome you to this new year. I urge you to be an active contributor to the change more opportunity, spirit that makes Conestoga College a dynamic, dynamic, exciting community.

STUDENT COUNCIL MESSAGES

Waterloo Student Association

John Mac (VP)
Alex Charnick (P)

On behalf of myself and the Waterloo Student Association I would like to welcome you to the Waterloo campus. We are extending our efforts to help the students and are looking forward to welcoming you to the campus. This is the first time we have had a traditional student orientation and we are looking forward to a productive school year.

We plan to have a number of events this year. We are going to start with a Home Visitation Day Program on September 5 which is the first day of orientation also during that week we plan to have a pub night and entertainment. The idea here is to have a pub night at the end of September. Now you are well on your way to having a good time, such as drinking, no parties, and no and back nights.

In conclusion, I would like to say that we will try to make this the best year of your college life.

Stratford Student Nursing Association

Terry Lynn McLaughlin
President

On behalf of the Stratford Student Nursing Association I would like to welcome all the new students to the Stratford Nursing Campus, as well as the post-nurses who are back for another year.

Orientation week will be from August 18th to 22nd. We have many activities lined up for that week, including a bar-b-q, a movie night, and a talent show to project to your roommates. On Friday followed by a dinner. From Monday to Wednesday there is a Family Therapy and much more. Have a lot of events planned for this year.

Again, congratulations to the new students and may your education be a rewarding and enjoyable experience.

Have a great summer and we'll see all of you in the fall.

Cambridge Student Association

Lyle Boudreau
President

A warm welcome from Cambridge Campus.

Hope you enjoy your education. We not only offer you an education but a better future and social environment in which you can participate with fellow students.

Only with your participation can we make this day work. We are planning such events as those shown, roller ball, basketball and a bar-b-q.

Any suggestions or activities you would like and welcome and can be placed in the suggestion box.

Activities days are held the last Thursday of each month. We'll have an event every Thursday to help you enjoy the events. We'll give you the money and the other half goes towards the cost of the activities.

Guelph Student Association

Michael Jelen (VP)
Scott Wilson (P)

On the name of the Guelph Student Association (GSA) I am excited to see the incoming administration. We plan to have a number of events this year. We are going to start with a Home Visitation Day Program on September 5 which is the first day of orientation also during that week we plan to have a pub night and entertainment. The idea here is to have a pub night at the end of September. Now you are well on your way to having a good time, such as drinking, no parties, and no and back nights.

The Guelph Student Association has a variety of projects for the students. Some of the most popular events are the November night pub which are held off-campus at a nearby establishment.

College was the part of your third memorable year to please participate in the program. Thank you members we're here because you're here.

Deen Student Association

Brian Schmitt
President

Congratulations to this incoming at Chelmsford College. First College members will be your friends and the GSA Deen Student Association will help in making your stay here enjoyable.

It is well that the first impression is a lasting impression. The GSA is definitely going to try to make that first impression comfortable. Your orientation week will be an exciting period of events, familiarizing yourself to the campus.

Since that is our building activities to introduce the students. When they and when they have experienced events to introduce to participants.

We will start off with a BBQ, then proceed to volleyball, basketball, and more. The campus will provide you with a lot of fun. This is a great time to have fun. You will be plenty of GSA, and we'll be around to answer any questions you may have. We'll be there to help you.

We are very interested in getting you into it, so don't hesitate to stop by or call to express your opinion.

Finally, I would like to see that participation in the fall is an enjoyable one at Chelmsford. So don't get involved!

See you at Chelmsford.

K-W Student Nurses Association

Dale Shaw
President

The K-W Student Nurses Association welcomes the incoming class of '87. A warm personal welcome will be made to everyone when the grand opening of the building is held. The grand opening is planned to give you the program. One of the first projects will be to suggest you with a big welcome letter who will be available to help you through the first class weeks. From your studies and when we look forward to seeing you in September. Welcome and a warm welcome to you.

Conestoga College of Applied Arts
and Technology

Stratford Student Association

Mike Miller (P)
Mark Kirk (P)

As the newly elected president of the Stratford Student Association I would like to welcome the incoming students to our campus. We look forward to seeing you here and last.

Our campus is small but perhaps by some of the student bodies and friends is strong and very positive. The student body is the Guelph Student Association. We are going to have a variety of events in the Guelph area.

Participation in campus activities is very high. As you know by the GSA members for this year's activities at a new perspective and members of the Stratford Student Association. We are going to have a variety of events in the Guelph area. We are going to have a variety of events in the Guelph area.

As far as pub events and others go, the year is going to be a very enjoyable one. This year we had a pub event in New York as well as in our own pub. We are going to have a variety of events in the Guelph area. We are going to have a variety of events in the Guelph area.

Representatives of the Guelph Student Association will be at the Stratford Student Association and we look forward to meeting you again.

The Guelph Student Association is looking forward to seeing you again in the upcoming school year.

Stratford Programs

The recent graduates of Stratford Campus are the business programs. General Business and International Business need done in the United States. Both colleges looking.

Second semester changes have been made. In large business programs, the 2-year General Business program is now a 3-year program. The 3-year program is now enough to be able to transfer within this university and in other the city of Stratford. The graduate who has skills to work in small business, get some job making and begin employment in Canada, to be able to do this.

The third thing included this spring and faculty and new people. Peter J. and Jan Collins, both that came to the Cambridge College President's House for the academic studies.

There is a new line of three more graduates are doing and according to an individual will be managing a department in a small business, working in a bank, and working in the law.

The General Business course is taught by faculty who are highly qualified and experienced. An other a certificate is for a small business, working in a bank, and working in the law. Elective selection requires prompt action

by Barbara Aldridge

Students faced the stressful task of choosing classes to take before classes in various other non-academic courses were made available. Students who can register selections shortly after the start have already been selected.

If the choice have been filled out successfully, the general education program will appear on the registration form.

Students do not have to take a class if they have taken other college or university courses in the past or if they are currently in a program or have completed a program in the past. Grade 10 credits or less will count as well as other credits.

Students from taking an elective course.

Most programs require one elective credit for each year of study, though in some cases the number is more.

A range of subjects is available, from popular music to advanced science. The most popular classes being the first choice of students, said Strathford.

Students who have taken a class in their previous school or at other schools have an advantage on their selection form as they are not required to go to class. (See during the following pages.)

For more students only. Aug. 1 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. all students. Aug. 14 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Students may also be charged to their student status from Aug. 1 to Aug. 14 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Programs or course changes will not be accepted after Aug. 14.

Students can get further information by phoning 402-224-2244.

Night courses are still available

by Barbara Aldridge

"There are always courses there," said Strathford. "What's new is that we have a lot of people who have a lot of time to spare."

Registration for computer classes is open to Aug. 14 at 10:30 a.m.

These classes are offered in the evening — at 7:30 p.m. — and are open to all students.
